Have you ever fallen in love with someone you shouldn't have fallen in love with? Well, that's just what happens to young Hermia and Lysander and Helena and Demetrius. Hermia's mother, Egea, wants her to marry Demetrius and if she doesn't, her choices are death or a nunnery. But the heart wants what the heart wants and Hermia and Lysander decide to run away together and all their problems are solved!

No. It doesn't really end that way. Helena and Demetrius get involved in the whole affair and there's an enchanted forest and fairies and magic flowers and a group of tradesmen and, briefly, a donkey. It's a strange and crazy tale that's too much for the back of this flyer, but just perfect for a midsummer's night at the theater!

OPENING NIGHT (JULY 2) AT 7:15 PM

Introduction by Prof. Dr. Joachim Frenk, Professor of British Literary and Cultural Studies and member of the Research Training Group "European Dream-Cultures" at Saarland University.
